FRESHMEN

FRESHMAN CLASS HISTORY

At the beginning of each year, a new species of creatures called freshmen invades the premises of Park High. They make their grand entry in old, over-sized shirts, paper sacks, knee socks, and numerous other marks which make a freshman an outstanding individual.

After a week of bowing to seniors, carrying books, and meeting the natives of this strange world (who are sometimes called upperclassmen), the freshmen are presented in their full glory at the TNT sponsored Freshman Mixer.

Throughout the year many talents are displayed by the freshmen.

Early in the year our class officers were elected. Billy Vicars was elected president; Jerry Short, vice president; Ellinor Boganes, secretary; and Sharon Graves, treasurer.

The freshman class was well represented in athletics by Billy Kemp, Ray Kastelitz, John Betz, Rodney Churchwell, Albert Sarisky, Jerry Short, Herb Beadle, and Taylor Lewis, plus many other wonderful athletes too numerous to mention.

To cheer our boys on to victory, there were the "B" squad cheerleaders; our Lucy McNamee was one of them. Sandy Hager was the alternate.

Among the scientists in P. C. H. S., the freshman class brought forth David Stein, first place winner in physical sciences in Montana; also Harold Hunter secured an honorable mention, and many others who participated in the District Science Fair.

The freshmen in band were: Rodney Churchwell, Dennis Crane, Harlan Durgan, Karen Dutt, Gary Hackman, Jack Evans, Star Quisel, John Tedrick, Doug Griffith, Dickie Franks, Gretchen, Lueck, Robert Pantzer, Caroline Nelson, Jerry Short, David Hillard, and Peggy Kicker.

Those in orchestra were: Lovie Ann Koch, Sharon Newell, Clara Romans, Peggy Kicker, and Karen Dutt.

Everyone knows spring is here when the girls begin "talking TNT." The freshmen pledges were: Nancy Murphy, Peggy Kicker, Diane Morgensen, Carole Larango, Ellinor Boganes, Kay Schleicher, Judy Graham, and Sharon Graves.

This year has been a lot of fun - games, dances, and tournaments. We're the luckiest class of all - we have three more years!

Linda Eyerly, President; Kitty Gleason, Treasurer; Judy Downer, Secretary; Larry Downer, Vice President.

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

This year, we as a sophomore class, find ourselves playing an important role in the activities of Park High, filling more places of leadership and responsibility, and making accomplishments in various fields.

Those selected from our home rooms to represent us in the student council were Jim Allen, Barry Davis, Carol Haas, Martha Painter, Sandra Parriott, and Gail Turner.

Home room chairmen were Bill Bouchee, Larry Downer, Lana Heckman, Mitch Miller, Karen Stein, and Jo Ann Ulrich.

A. L. Brown Awards were presented to Jim Allen, Carol Miles, Jay Winship, Phyllis Lindgren, Karen Stein, Jim Anderson, Barry Davis, Carol Haas, Bruce Whithorn, and Kay Browning.

Mike Forney entered the district speech contest and placed first with humorous declamation.

Science fair entries were made by Jim Allen, Carol Miles, and Bruce Robson.

The other eight girls elected into TNT were Lana Heckman, Denise McConnell, Sharon McGee, Claudia Miller, Myrtle Olson, Karen Stein, Gail Turner, and Sharon Wilkinson.

In F. F. A. Roger Ellison was class winner of the public speaking contest and Darryl Busby placed third in state livestock judging.

These F. H. A. girls were given their junior degrees: Deane Belle Cowan, Linda Eyerly, Kitty Gleason, Sonja Harris, Joyce Jones, Judy Kratovil, Phyllis Lindgren, Arlene McMains, Carol Miles, Norma Ommundsen, and Judy Pearson.

Carol Haas and Myrtle Olson were two of the "B" squad cheerleaders for the past year, and Dorothy Edwards, Sandy Parriott, Gail Turner, and Jo Anne Ulrich were chosen to be four of the five "A" squad cheerleaders for next year.

In the field of athletics top honors were given to these boys who received major letters: Bernard Allen, Bob Betley, Bill Bouchee, Larry Downer, Paul Ricci, and Ed Sumner.

These were some of the accomplishments of the sophomore class for the past year but the list is not nearly complete for each person has, in his own way, made some gains in our second year of high school.

JUNIORS

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

This year the activities of the junior class were guided by our capable class officers and our home room chairmen: Bob Means, Bruce Smith, Gary Bartholomew, and Dan Rickett. Our student council members, Gary Fish, Timi Carlson, Dan Rickett, Nancy Parriott, Bob Means, Bruce Smith, Gary Bartholomew, and Myrna Eyerly, also took a hand in running the school.

We started the year out with a bang and presented the play, "Second Childhood."

It was difficult to select the Girls' and Boys' State delegates and alternates from such a large eligible group. The final choice for the girl delegates were: Elaine White, Sandy Broadbent, Key Manzari, and Timi Carlson; alternates were: Myrna Eyerly, Betty Hunter, Emma Jean Bickle, and Anita Bouchee. The boy delegates were: Richard Nelson, Gary Bartholomew, Gary Fish, Dan Rickett, Jack Dunn, and Bruce Smith; alternates were: Richard Rongstad, Larry Dunlap, George Venable, Phil Wanek, Jerry O'Hair, and Ed Smith.

Betty Hunter was selected by the girls to represent them in the Vaughn Ragsdale Fashion Board.

On May 4, the Junior Prom was held in honor of the seniors. The gym looked like a "Japanese Tea Garden" with a small boy and girl passing out programs.

Myrna Eyerly and Bob Means entered the district speech contest at Dillion. Bob placed first with serious declamation, and Myrna placed fourth with original oratory; she also placed third in the state speech contest at Missoula.

Eleven major letters went to junior boys this year. These athletic awards went to Harold Gilkey, Ronnie Rang, Bill Bauer, Ron Haugan, Henry Hansen, Dick West, Ken Kastelitz, Bob Vandervort, and Buddy Johnson. Buddy Johnson also participated in the State Track Meet in Missoula.

Dan Rickett also boosted the esteem of the junior class by winning the Odd Fellows Citizenship Award.

Aldonna Walborn was elected as one of the five "A" squad cheerleaders.

The annual TNT election was held, and the nine junior girls admitted to the ranks were: Betty Hunter, Elaine White, Marjorie Bishop, Joyce Swainson, Juanita Miller, Lois Jones, Elaine Pulis, Lo-Retta Tudor, and Aldonna Walborn.

The junior class pitched in to decorate for the senior commencement and baccalaureate. On these nights the gym and auditorium were decorated with purple lilacs, white apple blossoms, and multi-colored tulips.

Though a few names stand out, we must remember that it took the wholehearted cooperation of every member of the class to successfully carry out the traditional junior activities and make this a year which each of us will always remember.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

Jack Godward, Treasurer; Kay Holland, Secretary; Dave Melin, Vice President; Dave Gibson, President.

Four short years ago, many frightened students first entered into the ranks of "Park County High School Students." Nothing could possibly have seemed larger or more confusing than this great building; and, oh, the horrible things that took place the first week! We freshmen were known as the freaks of the school, and lived up to our title by the garbs inflicted upon us by the bosses of the school. After one week of hilarious initiation, skits, and hard labor at the hands of older students, all wounds were healed by a get-acquainted mixer that resulted in new friendships.

Our first year in Park was quite uneventful, but we proved tops in scholastics, and we rapidly discovered the evils and worries of semester tests and the fun and fancy of games, dances, picnics, and all the other things that smooth over the rough spots of work.

We entered our sophomore year with a feeling of superiority over the freshmen, but we were still humbled by our elders. Ten of our members were honored as the highest of the class by being given the A. L. Brown Awards, and the first group of Honor Society members were chosen. As a class, we began to be better organized and we looked forward to our chores for next year.

And what a year our junior year turned out to be! We had stars all over the place - on the various sports teams and in our cheerleader squads. The Boys' and Girls' State delegates were elected. Our Junior play, "Melody Jones," was a big success and enabled our treasurer to cope with the needs of the Junior Prom. "A South Sea Island" was our exotic theme. There were tree trunks covered with crepe paper, palm leaves concocted from coat hangers and more paper, monkeys, cocoanuts, a dream yacht, straw hut, and star studded sky.

Now we were the high and exalted seniors; lords of the school. All through the years our classmates had participated in music festivals, science fairs, speech contests, concerts, and many other group activities. High School Week was introduced to some as juniors and others as seniors.

During this year we produced a comical and well-liked play entitled, "Professor, How Could You?" which literally tore the house down with laughter. We elected our last class officers: Dave Gibson, President; Dave Melin, Vice President; Kaye Holland, Secretary; and Jack Godward, Treasurer. The student body leaders were: Fred Terwilliger, President; Dick Chaney, Vice President; Bob White, Filing Secretary; and Marilyn Miller, Treasurer.

We, of course, had many honor students and a lot of scholarships awarded. Our valedictorian, Barbara Haas, and our salutatorian, Sandra Orr, were announced, and senior activities began.

We were the first class to ride through the Park on Greyhounds, and it turned out to be a marvelous skip day to be treasured by all. This took place May 22. A lot of fuss and bother went into producing the effect of a well dressed class the next day. Baccalaureate exercises took place Sunday and all seriousness began. The sermon was given by Reverend Robert L. Dunn. Then, the grand finale, Commencement!

Wishing for three years to be forever rid of tests, we would now see our dreams come true. But maybe it wouldn't be quite so easy as it seems? What about all our friends, teachers, and even classrooms? Well, maybe you're not sentimental, but all of these will be missed.

Professor How Could You! This was a delightful comedy about a young, history-minded, woman-hating professor who could become dean of a college if he would get married. The play dealt with the humorous episodes which resulted when all his friends tried to marry him off.

The characters were: Keats Perry. . . a young professor. . . Bill Drake; Vicky Randolph. . . the bane of his life. . . Loretta Urie; Grandma Perry. . . an obliging soul. . . Elaine Hansen; Grandpa Perry. . . an innocent bystander. . . Orvis Harper; John Appleby. . . a helpful friend. . . Delmar Maroney; Priscilla Morley. . . a sweet young thing. . . Sonja Bakke; Tootsie Bean. . . plump spinster. . . Patsy Shinn; Butcher Boy Bean. . . her big brother. . . Dick Barnhart; Valerie Whitman. . . a Southern charmer. . . Alberta Eggar; Boggins. . . the sporting butler. . . Jay Gleason.
